Certificate of Undergraduate Study in Financial Forensics & Fraud Investigations

The CUGS in Financial Forensics & Fraud Investigations is an interdisciplinary program that provides a sequence of courses that combines forensic topics with law-justice topics, enabling students to pursue post graduate certification or higher degree training in the area of forensics (forensic studies, forensic science, or related fields). It will provide students with considerable knowledge in forensics, assisting them in further achievement of professional designations in forensics. Please note that this CUGS is primarily intended for business and accounting majors, due to the prerequisites for ACC 03419 Forensic Accounting and Fraud Investigation. Consult the Banner system for a full list of course prerequisites for this and all courses included in the CUGS.
