Certificate of Undergraduate Study in Management & Leadership

The Certificate of Undergraduate Study (CUGS) in Management & Leadership is open to students in any major other than Management and is designed to give students a working knowledge of the softer, qualitative, and behavioral aspects of management and will help their preparedness for entry into the workplace. The four courses below will enable students to: 1) understand how to communicate effectively in organizational/business settings; 2) understand theories about motivation and team building; 3) understand theories underlying the different types of leadership and 4) understand theories of organizational change and development.

Required Courses: 12 s.h.

The requirements include the following four courses:

Course Name	Credits:	Term Taken	Grade	Gen Ed
MGT 06300 - Organizational Behavior	Credits: 3
MGT 06304 - Organizational Change and Development	Credits: 3
MGT 06310 - Leadership and Supervision for Managers	Credits: 3
WA 01408 - Writing as Managers	Credits: 3

Total Required Credits for the Program: 12 s.h.

To be awarded the CUGS in Management & Leadership, students must complete all four courses required for the CUGS in Management & Leadership with at least a 2.0 GPA average. The above mentioned pre-requisites make this CUGS best suited for students who are sophomores, and have completed the writing/composition course sequence, and would like to develop an understanding of organizational management and leadership skills in their junior year and beyond.
